KEITH NEAL LENOCKER CAMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Instructions:

1. Please fill out all the information below. This information will provide the basis used in the consideration of the award. The application may be filled out with the help of a parent, family, friends, or the sponsoring organization.
2. The Foundation will make the campership donation directly to the organization running the camp program. Donations are not made to the camper or their family. The sponsoring organization must be a non-profit company with a 501c3 or equivalent tax status.
3. A Foundation campership donation is normally fifty percent (50%) of the camp fee and can not exceed ninety percent (90%).
4. The decision to provide a campership donation will be based upon available funds in the Foundation for such awards along with a recommendation from the Camp organization and the information contained in this application.
5. The child is expected to write a short letter to the Foundation after or while attending camp. This is to be a very short letter just explaining what the child is doing or enjoying at camp. It is not meant to be a thank you letter.
